Your filing was partially processed by the Bryan Municipal Court.

What does "partially processed" mean?

It means two of the documents you filed with this filing were processed by the Bryan Municipal Court but, unfortunately, one of the documents was rejected. More information regarding which documents were processed and which was rejected can be found in the "Filing information" section below.

So what happens next?

The documents that were processed into the Bryan Municipal Court case management system require no further action. You can try to re-file the document that was rejected but first be sure to correct whatever issue(s) prevented it from being processed by the Bryan Municipal Court.
